Fireworks on Friday: 'BridgeFest' returns July 2

From Art Schroeder and Melinda Posner
West Sacramento Redevelopment & Housing Agency

BridgeFest '99 promises to be even more spectacular than years before, with live music, food and drink, and a fantastic fireworks display. For those of you who are newcomers to the popular Independence Day event, and for those of you who don't quite remember, here are the key details.

BridgeFest will be celebrated this Friday, July 2, starting at 6 p.m. and continuing until after dark, when the fireworks begin. Starting at 5:30 p.m., Industrial Blvd. across the Daniel C. Palamidessi Bridge will be closed. Free parking will be available on Industrial Blvd. north of the bridge. The pre-fireworks festivities will take place in the parking lot of the West Sacramento City Hall, located at 2101 Stone Blvd. After dark, enjoy the fireworks on the Daniel C. Palamidessi Bridge, within easy walking distance and just west of the parking lot.

Pop, rock 'n roll and barbershop music will fill this year's entertainment bill, offering a little something for everyone. Enjoy the beat with food and beverages for sale from local vendors including Yolo Club and Johnny's Sidewalk Pizza, as well as tacos, snow cones, popcorn, soda and select microbrews. The free event is sponsored by Ramco Enterprises, Summit Commercial and Coors. BridgeFest '99 is produced by the West Sacramento Chamber of Commerce, in association with the City of West Sacramento.

For more information, call the Chamber at 371-7042.

Ballpark: Judge's decision still awaited, stadium construction timing issue gets serious

By Steve Marschke
News-Ledger Editor

West Sacramento, Sacramento County and Yolo County plan to issue $40 million in bonds to help River City Baseball build a stadium on the city's waterfront in time for the April 1, 2000, season opener. Team owner Art Savage has purchased the Vancouver Canadians team, and plans to bring them to West Sacramento to play next season as an affiliate of the Oakland A's major league team.

"The bond sale is not going to be June 30 (as earlier planned)," said Leigh Keicher, who is treasurer to the Joint Powers Authority formed by the three jurisdictions for the bond sale. "We really don't know when it's going to be. It really depends on when the judge comes out with his decision and what that decision is."

Judge Timothy Fall of the Yolo County Superior Court presided over a hearing June 18, listening to a request by attorney John Latini to amend his lawsuit blocking the ballpark's construction on environmental grounds. Latini is suing on behalf of a mostly-anonymous entity called the "Friends of Sacramento."

Fall had earlier dismissed the lawsuit on technical grounds. Fall indicated that he would issue a decision on whether to allow Latini to amend it "in the near future." As of yesterday afternoon, that decision hadn't been released.

> 'It's starting to get critical.'
> WARREN SMITH
> River City Baseball

Should Latini's request fail, the path appears clear for the bond sale – but time is ticking on ballpark construction.

"It's starting to get critical," said Warren Smith of River City Baseball. "The other side of the river is doing everything it can to make sure West Sacramento and the region do not get this baseball stadium."

Smith said there is still time to build a stadium, noting that "they built Yankee Stadium in 273 days."

That's roughly the same number of days the West Sacramento promoters would have to build their 10,000-seat stadium on the riverfront near the Tower Bridge if the bonds were sold immediately, he noted.

The unusual Joint Powers Authority calls for Sacramento County to guarantee repayment on two-thirds of the $40 million bond sale and for West Sacramento to guarantee the balance. Yolo County would participate by offering the stadium a property tax rebate.

Triple-A baseball is the highest rung of the minor leagues, and competition has been stiff among several proposals to bring a team to the Sacramento region.

ABOUT TOWN:

Homer & Dorothy Morris

By Daryl Fisher
Features Editor

Homer Morris and his wife of 50 years, Dorothy, didn't meet in one of the more conventional ways.

"I was on vacation in Lake Tahoe," recalled Dorothy, "and four or five of my girlfriends and I went into a market where Homer was working and he told us the meat I ordered would be free if he could come over for dinner. Now I'm not exactly sure why he picked me out instead of one of the other girls -- probably because I was the loudest -- but he did, and we were married the following year."

"If I remember right," said Homer with a laugh, "Dorothy did the picking, not me."

After leasing a market in Lake Tahoe for a season and calling a cramped trailer their home, Homer and Dorothy decided to return to the Sacramento Valley.

"I leased a meat market on 28th and P Street in Sacramento for about a year," remembered Homer, "then I spent the next couple of years working with Willie DaPrado at his market on 15th Street in West Sacramento. After that, I opened up Homer's Meat Market on Merkley Avenue and we were there for another three years or so. Each of those business experiences went really well and after Dorothy and I took a little vacation down south to see the horse races at Santa Anita, we bought the property on Jefferson Boulevard where Homer's Florists & Gifts is still located."

For 27 years -- from the late 1950s to the mid-1980s, Homer and Dorothy worked tirelessly to make their family business into what soon became a West Sacramento landmark.

Known for the local florist's shop that still bears Homer's name, the Morrises are also known for the spirited holiday decorations -- such as these Independence Day decorations -- that grace their Park Blvd. home

"In the beginning," said Homer, "we were actually a nursery, although we also sold hardware goods and paints. But over the years, one thing led to another, and it wasn't too long before we had a very successful flower and gift shop on our hands."

"One of our customers came in and asked for a corsage," recalled Dorothy, "and although I had never done anything like that before, I managed to figure out how to do it and we soon had quite a production line of corsages and flower arrangements. Homer and I had to learn pretty much everything from scratch, but it all worked out for the best."

"Running a successful business is really pretty simple," said Homer. "You get to work by six o'clock in the morning and you don't go home until everything is done. It's also very important to be nice to your customers and hire extremely good employees. A business is no better than the people who work for it and we were lucky enough to have eight of the finest employees anywhere."

"Homer is from my era," said Bill Ramos, a very successful West Sacramento businessman in his own right. "I can remember getting meat from Homer in the evenings and really having a great time visiting with him. He's a very nice person and was always a good, hard-working businessman who knew what he was doing. Whether you were buying meat or flowers from Homer, he went out of his way to treat his customers right, and West Sacramento is a better place because he decided to live and do business here."

At the age of 70, Homer started feeling poorly in the mornings when he was at work and it was soon discovered that he would need open-heart surgery.

"It turned out that Homer needed five bypasses," said Dorothy, "and although everything went fine, we decided it was time to sell the business. We sold it to the Troyanos family, and one of their daughters was our bookkeeper, so it was nice to leave it in good hands."

During their retirement years, Homer and Dorothy have become very well known for the wonderful decorations that can always be found in the front yard of their longtime Park Boulevard home on the Fourth of July, Easter, and during the Christmas season.

"I also like to put a few things in the window on Valentine's Day, Thanksgiving, Halloween and St. Patrick's Day, too," said Dorothy. "Everybody seems to

First 100 homes of development 'boom' expected in Southport in 1999

By Steve Marschke
News-Ledger Editor

A 380-acre residential development in Southport broke ground June 16 in a ceremony attended by developers and local officials.

"Bridgeway Island," formerly known as the "Gainsborough" project, is slated to hold 1,800 new single family homes from 1,400 to 2,500 square feet. Builders will include JTS Communities, Kaufman and Broad, Richmond American Homes, Forecast Homes and Christopherson Homes. The property is being developed by David Stroud.

The development is located in the city's southern half, west of Jefferson Blvd., north of Marshall Rd., and east of the deep water shipping channel. It is south of the Southport Industrial Park.

Stephen Patek, community development director for West Sacramento, noted that there is some movement towards construction at several other south-area locations.

At Southport Gateway, near South River Road and Jefferson Blvd., he said, "they are grading and are working on permits." That project is planned by Ryder Homes.

Meanwhile, the Newport Estates development on Linden Rd. "has run into a bit of a problem," Patek remarked. "Traces of arsenic were found in the soil that are above what's acceptable for a residential area. They have to come up with a plan to mitigate that, such as removing the top layer of soil."

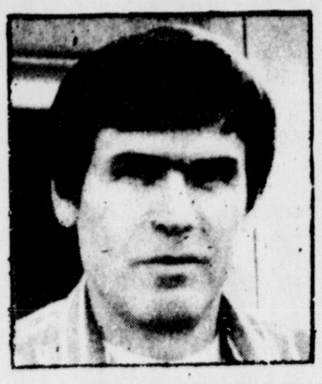
Patek said the arsenic was not anything that could be a health threat to current area residents, and was apparently left over from pesticide use at an orchard formerly on the property. The project is planned by Seecon of the East Bay Area.

Overall, major construction in Southport – anticipated for over a decade – is still not in full swing, said Patek.

"This year, we'll be doing well to have a hundred homes built," he commented. "They'll be mostly models and a few first homes. Next year, well be doing well to sell 500 or so. Projections are that after three or four years, we'll be reaching construction levels of 700 or 800 homes per year. That's always seemed a bit optimistic to us, but that's what some of the experts have told us."

The Martin & Josephine DeAnda house is no more

My Back Pages



By Daryl Fisher

There was a time, not so long ago, when if you wanted to travel by car from West Sacramento to San Francisco, you had better stop off at the Last Chance service station on the corner of West Capitol Avenue and Harbor Boulevard. It was owned by the Nicoletti family and it was the last gas station you were going to find until you reached Vacaville. Over the years, it became a well-known West Sacramento landmark, as did the little three bedroom, one bathroom family house which stood only a few hundred yards away.

For those of you unfamiliar with the house at 631 Harbor Boulevard, for over 60 years it was the home (and I mean that in the very best sense of the word) of the Martin and Josephine DeAnda family. It was also where Ray, Raul, Felix, Frank, Josie, Martin Jr., Julia, Yolanda, John and Danny DeAnda grew up.

"We didn't have a lot of money," recalled Felix DeAnda, "but we had a lot of good friends and they were always welcome at our house. We were a very close family and we found ways to make our own fun. I can still remember the great birthday parties we always had and how hard our parents worked to make sure our early years were enjoyable for all of us. They are very pleasant memories to have."

"My parents moved to West Sacramento in the early 1930s," recalled Raul DeAnda. "With the help of my grandmother, they bought ten acres of land and my father began raising cows, chickens and pigs. He also worked in the local canneries during the asparagus, peach and tomato seasons and even drove a WPA dump truck for extra money. I remember one year was especially hard because our pigs began dying from hog cholera. They each weighed about 250 pounds and we had close to a hundred of them and they just started getting droopy and drowsy. All we could do was watch as the county came out and killed them and hauled them off for chicken feed."

When the DeAnda family first moved to their property on Harbor Boulevard, there was little more than rice paddies for as far as the eye could see. They lived for awhile in a small, rundown house which was already on the site, but after it almost blew down during a frightening wind storm in 1938, Martin hired two local carpenters to build the house where he and his family would live for more than half a century.

"The new house had running water, new paint, and best of all, an inside toilet," remembered Raul, "and we all could hardly wait to move in. It was so exciting to see it being built, and believe me, it was very sad last Wednesday morning to watch it being torn down."

Martin DeAnda died in 1994 and although Josephine continued to live in the family house for another year or so after his death, their children finally decided it wasn't really safe for her to stay there alone anymore.

"Mom has been at the Mercy McMahon Terrace Retirement Home in downtown Sacramento for about five years now," explained daughter Josie Andre. "During that time, we have rented out the family house on Harbor Boulevard, but with the wiring and plumbing starting to fall apart, my brothers and sisters and I reluctantly decided it was finally time to have the house demolished. But as I looked at the walls coming down, I couldn't help but think back to all the good times my family had in that house. My father and mother poured their sweat and blood into that little old house and the property it stood on. We grew almost all of our own food and vegetables and my mother made cheese and butter every day. Everybody had their work and chores to do, but when our friends came over to visit or stay the night, my mother always made them feel like one of the family. She used to say 'Everyone that loves my children, I love'."

When I was a teenager, one of my friends was John DeAnda and I spent the night at his parents' house on a number of occasions. During the day, there were baseballs to be hit on a homemade field of dreams he and his brothers had hacked out of pasture land, and basketballs to be dribbled on a makeshift dirt court, and even track events to be run on a dusty oval I helped create one long, hot summer. And best of all, there was always a huge breakfast to be wolfed down each morning because Mrs. DeAnda was truly concerned that I was way too skinny.

Demolition crew makes short work

"The house is gone now," said Josie sadly, "but the memories live on. The rooms were small, there was no air conditioning, and if you wanted to cool off in the summer, you had to make yourself a mudslide, but we were all so very happy when we lived there."

"It's the end of an era," concluded Felix, "and my brothers and sisters and I wouldn't trade those years for anything."

OUR FAMILY SERVING YOUR FAMILY

Twice-a-month effort can help provide meals & contact for West Sac's frail

From the Elderly Nutrition Program in Yolo County
People Resources, Inc.

Did you know that a hot lunch is served to the doorstep of 75 frail, homebound seniors (most of whom are low income) throughout West Sacramento each day? Did you also know that there are almost 20 seniors on the waiting list, who cannot be served, because there is not enough help to deliver the meals? For many, this is the only balanced nutritious meal and the only visitor they receive each day.

The Elderly Nutrition Program in Yolo County is in need of volunteers to deliver meals to our most vulnerable population. To meet the needs of these seniors and eliminate the waiting list, we want to create a new delivery route to feed up to 24 seniors. In order to do this, we are looking for local companies to "adopt a delivery route" and for individuals to offer their time. It takes approximately 10-20 people to maintain a delivery route on a monthly basis.

Volunteers are needed one time a week, two times a month or as your schedule will allow. Meals are delivered Monday through Friday (except holidays) between 10:45 a.m. and 12 p.m. All we ask is that you drive your own car, maintain current car insurance and have a valid driver's license (mileage reimbursement available on request). All other supplies are provided, as well as training.

The Elderly Nutrition Program is a private, non-profit organization providing over 100,000 meals annually to senior citizens in a friendly congregate setting and directly to the homes of frail elderly shut-ins throughout Yolo County.

It's goodbye to NBA basketball and hello to the NFL pre-season camps, as the NBA crowned the San Antonio Spurs the 1999 NBA Champions. The Spurs finally put the Knicks out of their misery, winning the best of seven series in five games. The city of San Antonio organized a giant fiesta parade, that was witnessed by over 250,000 cheering fans, along the downtown River Walk.

Well, the season was almost over but the NBA is having their draft on Wednesday, June 30 (4:30 - TNT). It should be very interesting with the Chicago Bulls picking first and sixteenth and they also have two more picks in the second round. Also, rumors are flying around the league that the Rockets are trading Hakeem Olajuwon to Toronto for two first round picks and two players! Stay tuned, the Kings might make a couple of moves to pick up a shooting guard. Do you know who's the best available shooting guard in the league? It's free agent - Mitch Richmond and the Kings have salary cap money available this year!

The Women's World Cup is down to the best eight teams in the competition. The final round of the group matches produced the USA and Nigeria in group A, Brazil and Germany in group B, Norway and Russia in group C and China and Sweden in group D. The best seven of the eight quarter-finalists - the four winners plus the three narrowest losers - will join Australia in the eight-team Olympic Women's Soccer Tournament in Sydney next year.

The quarter finals for World Cup start on Wednesday, June 30 in San Jose with China facing Russia (5 p.m.) and Norway, who is the defending World Champion, against their arch rival Sweden (7:30 p.m.). The other quarter-final is in Landover, Md. with the USA against Germany (4 p.m.) and Brazil tangles with Nigeria (6:30 p.m.). The semi-final is set for July 4th at Stanford and the final is on July 10 at the Rose Bowl. These soccer doubleheaders will be televised on ESPN2.

Speaking of ESPN2, Willie Jorrin will attempt to take the NABF title from Aristead Clayton on riday, July 2. Promoter Don Chargin has great boxing card for this 5:30 p.m. televised fight at the Radisson Hotel. Both fighters will come in at the 122-pound limit for this 12-round championship belt. Clayton (22-1,11 KO's) is ranked fourth by the World Boxing Council. Jorrin (23-0, 12 KO's) is ranked No. 5. These fighters met twice in the amateurs with Jorrin winning both times by decision. Clayton was a National Golden gloves champion and was named as an alternate for the U.S. Olympic team in 1992. The winner of this match is promised a title fight in October. Tickets are available at Pro-Venture Travel at 1420 Merkley Ave., Suite 6 (372-9294). Don't miss the fight of the year!

Raley's Field

There are still a few old-timers around who can remember the days when the late Thomas P. Raley was just starting out as a grocer. Beginning with a single Placerville store, the young man struggled while he innovated. Money was often short, and friendly creditors can recall with a chuckle that he was sometimes, out of necessity, a bit hard for them to locate when a bill was due.

But those times passed, and Raley grew into a leading grocer, building the supermarket chain that bears his name. The chain now includes several other significant store brands, and is a nationally recognized supermarket symbol of excellence as well as one of the country's largest privately owned companies. (Its West Sacramento supermarket is certainly not a "flagship" Raley's store, but even this one has been upgraded and improved recently).

Of note to West Sacramentans is Mr. Raley's commitment to their city. He was bullish on West Sacramento and was a major landowner and planner of its riverfront.. He purposefully built his company's headquarters in West Sacramento near that riverfront – in a blighted area that was not an obvious choice to others. And while he did not live long enough to see grandiose riverfront plans in West Sacramento come to fruition, he remains involved, in a way, as development starts.

The Raley's corporation has purchased the naming rights to the planned Triple-A baseball stadium in West Sacramento near the Tower Bridge, and current plans are to call it "Raley's Field."

It's hard to imagine a more appropriate name. What better moniker for the waterfront stadium than the name of Raley, who built the city's most prominent business and championed the potential of the West Sacramento riverfront?

Message from River City High's valedictorian

(Editor's Note: Following is the text of the speech delivered by the author at the graduation ceremony for River City High School in West Sacramento this month. Mr. Yusufzai, may be the school's last valedictorian, since the school district plans to do away with the honor due to perceived inequities in the selection process and other issues.)

Sultan Yusufzai
Class of 1999 Valedictorian
River City High School

Assalamu-Alaikum and good evening friends, faculty, and family members of the graduating class of 1999. I am greatly honored to address you as this year's valedictorian. We have all come together tonight to recognize the completion of 12 years of schooling. This is a memorable night for everyone on this stage. It is a night that will stay with us for all our lives. Tonight is a night of joy, a night of sadness, but most importantly, a night of new beginnings.

It is only now when I look back on the past four years that I begin to realize what a great impact our high school careers have had on our lives. The past 12 years, especially the high school years, will forever be instilled in our hearts, directing our future endeavors and guiding us on our separate paths in life.

We, as the graduating class, have reached a fork in the road to our future. Here we will part and take on our own paths in life. The road will take some to college, others to settled paths, but for all the road leads to new experiences and greater achievements.

SULTAN YUSUFZAI, River City's top-ranked graduate in the Class of 1999

We have been together for the last four years and one wonders how these years could have gone by so quickly. Our freshman year we were all thrown together, strangers to one another, blind to what the future had in store for us. Our sophomore year we knew each other, but we were too timid to approach one another. Last year, we united as a class and this year passed so quickly that no one knows where it went. This graduating class, more than any other, has been through a lot. We have laughed together and we have cried together and it has made us stronger and bound us to one another.

For me, tonight has more meaning than just the completion of my public education. Tonight marks the second anniversary of the death of my best friend, Masood Samyee. It was two years ago tonight, on graduation night, that my best friend lost his life at the hands of a drunk driver. Exactly a year to that date, Somart Souvanny passed away in a similar accident. And this year, Matt Sidhu's death deeply touched us all. Their deaths have had a tremendous impact on this graduating class. Each one of these students brought happiness into the lives of everyone they came in contact with. Their departure was way too soon. What makes their deaths even sadder is that they had so much to offer to the world. They were full of potential. May God bless their souls.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank first and foremost, God. Without Him I wouldn't be giving this speech tonight. I would like to thank my parents for sacrificing so much by leaving Afghanistan 20 years ago in pursuit of an education for me and my brothers and sister, and for their inspirational advice which taught me that I truly can accomplish anything I put my mind to. I would like to thank my uncle Abdul Kadim Yusufzai for his wisdom and guidance. I would like to thank Harold Honeyfield for his generous nature. I would like to thank Don Allen, Carol Higgins, Sandra Green and Sandra Larson for their support. And I would finally like to thank all my friends for always being there when I needed them the most. You know who you are.

What makes tonight even more memorable is that the graduation of our class marks the completion of this millennium. What this signifies to me is greater beginnings. So, I turn to you, the graduating class of 1999, and say that everything that has happened is now behind us. Work for the future and don't dwell on the past.

Tonight I stand before you as the last valedictorian at River City High School. I seal a tradition which has been carried out for decades and I am greatly honored. Graduates, tonight is the last event we will share as a class, but I say not farewell, I say until next time, because we will meet again.

Graduates, we can never forget each other. We have been through so much together that we have become a part of one another. So, I leave you this evening with a quote that I think says it best: "The friends of our youth leave footprints on our hearts, and we are never the same again."

Assalamu-Alaikum and may God bless you all!

Where's PortFest?

CHARLES SANO

I received my "City Lights" this morning and notice that the Riverbank Music Festival will take place on the 25th of September this year on the River Walk.

What ever happened to the Port Fest this year that was a great success in 1996? It had country, rock and Latin jazz music on the main stage and got big support from the community. The same year, the Riverbank Music Festival received no support and it became a major loss in 1996!

So where is the country, rock and Latin music in the Riverbank Music Festival (program) in 1999? Someone running the West Sac Chamber of Commerce wasn't around in 1996, to know what works for success in West Sacramento for support!

Remember that PortFest '96 had that magic touch to entertain the people of the community with DIVERSITY, UNION and VISION for our support! West Sacramento is a multicultural city in 1999!

Meals fundraiser

On May 20, the 10th Annual Epicurean Esprit was hosted at the stunningly beautiful home of Jane and Raymond Shurtz of rural Woodland. A special thank you to the Shurtzes for their warm and gracious hospitality. This year, over 440 people attended the fundraiser to benefit Meals on Wheels programs in Yolo County, raising approximately $30,000! Traditionally a backyard event, the night proved to be an enjoyable evening of gourmet food, wine, and beverages all donated and served by our local restaurants, caterers, wineries and beverage distributors. They all deserve more thanks than can be expressed, as they return each year to serve their culinary delights to Epicurean Esprit enthusiasts. Special applause also goes to the Jim Hilliard Trio – light jazz on a perfect spring evening.

Additional thanks go to our numerous friends, supporters and sponsors of the Epicurean Esprit. This year, our top sponsors were, in the "silver" division: Blue Shield of California, Don Beeman Farms, Cache Creek Bingo and Casino, Don Giovannetti/Half Moon Fruit & Produce Co., Longs Drug Store, and Waste Management of Woodland.

"Platinum" sponsors: The Daily Democrat, River City Bank, Regnar & Beverly Paulsen Foundation.

As we all know, a successful fundraiser relies on the strong commitment and productivity of a good committee. Their contributions as individuals and team players reflects not only their professionalism, but their heart. Thank you to all who helped put on this year's Esprit. And a special thank you to those committee members who return to help us again.

And last, but not least, all of you ticket holders who keep returning year after year to support your senior, homebound community, thank you so very much. Because of you, we not only topped last year, we doubled it! And to those of you who have never been to an Esprit, you don't know what you're missing. See you next year!

Local Items

Items pertaining to all persons in and around Washington and all parts of Yolo County are welcomed by The Independent. The paper aims to give a correct account of all local events of interest. The impossibility of reaching every home is apparent and therefore the request is made that these little items be sent to the office at the Postoffice or to the Peoples Bank in Sacramento.—Editor.

The Sacramento River registered 7 feet 6 inches, U. S. gauge at the bridge, yesterday.

Members of the Volunteer Firemen went to the Empress Theatre in Sacramento last Sunday night in a body to witness the moving pictures of the water fight held on July 4th. The boys were much surprised at the figures they cut when under fire.

The baby girl of Mr. and Mrs. J. Allerton was badly bruised last Tuesday evening when she rolled down the front stairs of the dwelling. She has fully recovered.

The case against Mrs. P. K. Graves sworn to by Mrs. H. Eugene has been postponed indefinitely.

John Azevedo, foreman for the West Sacramento Co. is the proud possessor of a big new auto. He has promised several friends that he will show them what speed means when he is able to get out in his spare time.

John Silva King is also the owner of a car, but being very careful, he invested in a Ford. He vouches he does not want his neck broken and wants to stay a father to his children for some years to come.

Mrs. A. J. Fleming was greatly surprised last Tuesday morning when she went out on her front porch to take a few mouthfuls of the fresh morning breeze. A man without hat or shoes was just trying to get into her home. She called loudly for help and the fellow ran, leaving all his belongings. Mrs. Fleming wants him to come back for his clothing.

A new carpet adds much to the comfort of a home, Locke & Son, 818 J street, have a great stock at easy prices.—adv.

An attempt was made to enter the Klefman home on Monday morning but Mr. Klefman heard the intruder and scared him away. He had been using a jimmy on the front windows without success.

Last Saturday morning Constable Russell with Herman Garber and Gene Parkinson made a trip along the railroad track west of town to examine the sanitary condition of "the camp" located there. About forty hobos were ordered to move, but there were just as many more back there on the same evening. Some of these men have regular rooms in the cheap lodging houses of Sacramento, but prefer to sleep in the open air. They cross the bridge at a late hour and make their beds in the brush without evil intent or a desire to disturb anyone.

Mrs. J. Soule has entirely recovered from her late spell of sickness.

Mrs. E. A. Palm is able to be around her home with the aid of crutches and expects to be able to discard them in a week or ten days.

P. A. Hart in the good boat Aquatic took thirty-two employes of the Kimball-Upson Co. to the Mallard Gun Club grounds on a fishing trip last Sunday. Lots of fish were caught and the outing was pronounced a great success.

Joe Lawrence has three teams leveling the sand on the front street levee south of Harriett street. His contract only calls for that portion as far south as Mary street. That portion between there and the M-street bridge will be done later.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Hanson with their nieces Mary and Frances will leave tomorrow morning for Dillon's beach for a vacation of two weeks. Mrs. Mary Hanson will leave at the same time to spend several weeks at the Hotel Del Mar at Seabright.

J. G. Soule and wife with Mrs. S. P. Pankost and Gene Parkinson made a trip to Vallejo last Sunday in the Soule Buick. They returned without mishap although J. G. drove the entire distance and a splendid outing was enjoyed.

Cunningham and McClure have been forced to add to their delivery service although only a few weeks ago a Ford truck was bought to accommodate their growing trade. Last Saturday they put on a horse and wagon to do the short runs around town.

C. Jennings of San Mateo is in town looking after his property on James street. He is making extensive repairs.

July 17th will be the last date on which taxpayers may appear before the Board of Equalization in Woodland. The Board of Supervisors are now holding special sessions listening to complaints against valuations.

Mrs. E. C. Turner has returned to her home in Chico after two weeks' visit in Washington.

SUIT STARTED TO COMPEL S. P. TO OPEN DRAINAGE

At the request of the Levee Trustees of Washington and the Levee Trustees of District 811, District Attorney McDonald filed for Yolo County yesterday a complaint against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, asking that the court order the company to open a culvert through its railroad embankment west of town. The embankment prevents the flow of seepage waters from the neighborhood and has proved a source of annoyance.

Last winter the Trustees of District 811 damned the flow of water near Seventh street with the result that all property west of Third street was overflowed for several weeks.

When the railroad embankment was built a few years ago the culvert which had formerly conveyed surface water westward was closed and it is the opening of this culvert which is asked for in the suit.

SCHOOL CHILDREN WILL GO TO SACRAMENTO FOR SOME STUDIES

A request has been made by the Washington School Trustees on the Board of Education of Sacramento to permit the children to attend the Manual Training and Domestic Science classes in Sacramento.

Formal reply has not yet been received, but it is understod that permission will be granted.

No charge will be made for the lessons outside of the actual cost of materials used.

There are 39 pupils in the local school who will take advantage of opportunity, namely the children of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades.

MAN'S LEG NEARLY SEVERED IN ATTEMPT TO BOARD TRAIN

Last Friday evening in attempting to board a moving freight train on the Southern Pacific, just in front of the postoffice, a man giving the name of Clarence L. Wallace fell beneath the wheels and suffered so severe a cut on his left leg that a county hospital surgeon in Sacramento found it necessary to sever the member below the knee. Wallace was picked up and taken to Sacramento to the police emergency hospital. From there he was rushed to the county hospital in the patrol automobile.

The accident was witnessed by several persons on Ann street, who rushed to the man's assistance. He would otherwise have been ground under the wheels of the train.

Wallace was on his way from Chicago to San Francisco.

He is still confined at the Sacramento County Hospital.

F. W. Todhunter returned from San Francisco last Monday after a short visit at the bay district.

H. Armstrong with his sister-in-law, Eva Chambers, are at home after a short visit with friends in Richmond.

Elon Flint is convalescent after being under a physician's care for several days with a threatened case of typhoid fever.

When an automobile plunged over an embankment at Riverbank last Monday, P. Augestine, owner and driver of the car, Mrs. J. Remo and her three-year-old child, and Miss Leda Peters were painfully injured. They were taken to Sacramento and their injuries were treated at the City Emergency Hospital.

A. A. Merkley was appointed administrator of the estate of his brother, C. H. Merkley, last Monday by Superior Judge Anderson. The widow had been appointed, but asked the court to appoint her brother-in-law.

The wedding of Miss Florence Kripp, daughter of Ed Kripp to William Morris Cohn of Folsom took place Thursday at the home of Senator Cohn of Folsom. Miss Kripp was born in Washington at the old Kripp home, now a part of West Sacramento headquarters.

S. P. WILL BE REQUESTED TO WIDEN ENTRANCE AT THIS END OF THE BRIDGE

SUPERVISORS WILL BE ASKED TO PLACE SIGNS FOR THE DIRECTION OF TRAVELERS OVER THE YOLO CAUSEWAY.

At the regular meeting of the Washington Improvement Club last Tuesday evening, it was decided to request the S. P. Co. to widen the entrance to the overhead roadway at this end of the bridge.

For some considerable time past the necessity of this change has been evident because on various occasions vehicles and automobiles have become tangled resulting in damage and endangering the lives of several people.

Only last Tuesday evening was this clearly exemplified. An electric from Sacramento came down the grade at a moderate rate of speed and when turning the sharp corner at Third street a front wheel collapsed, leaving the vehicle in the roadway an obstruction to traffic, a menace to automobiles and dangerous to all vehicles going to or coming from Sacramento.

A large telegraph pole which now stands at the southern entrance to the bridge is very much in the way but can easily be removed to the northern entrance without detriment to the wires which are strung thereon.

Several crossing posts and sign posts are also dangerous and in the way of traffic, making the crossings very sharp turns right on two railroad tracks which are traversed by frequent trains.

The feasibility of widening the opening is without question. There is lots of space to spare. All that would be necessary is the removal of a section of the fencing and sidewalk at the southern side of the bridge.

If this was done there would be ample room for all vehicles to cross the railroad tracks without interference and there would be little danger, for any traveler may observe incoming and outgoing trains.

A committee of the Club was appointed to interview Division Superintendent Brennan and make request that this change be made. The committee consists of Mrs. J. McNevin, P. A. Fitzgerald and Mrs. F. H. Todhunter.

It was decided also at the meeting that a request would be made on Supervisor Leinberger to place signs for the direction of travelers on their way to or from the Yolo Causeway. The location of these signs was specified as follows: One at the forks of the highway, south of the subway from Fifth street, one at Fifth and Mary streets, and one at Third and Mary streets.

Further, two signs were deemed necessary, one at Fifth and Ann streets and one at Fourth and Ann streets.

A committee of the Club was named to interview Supervisor Leinberger and make this request to consist of D. Barry, P. A. Fitzgerald and Mrs. J. McNevin.

The financial report to the Club which was read at last Tuesday's meeting shows a very healthy condition of financial affairs during the past year. A worthy donation was made by the Club towards purchasing chairs for the Town Hall in the amount of $50. A piano was also purchased, costing over $100 and various other donations showed that the Club is extremely active in furthering the best interests of the community.

The officers for the coming year were installed as follows:

President, Mrs. F. H. Todhunter; Vice-President, A. F. Reynolds; Recording Secretary, Belle Parkinson; Financial Secretary, Miss K. Williams; Treasurer, Mrs. W. E. Curry; Sergeant-at-Arms, Homer W. Lee; Trustees, Mrs. J. McNevin, Mrs. P. Braun, Mrs. J. Hutchinson.

It was decided by the Club that during the summer months regular meetings would be held only twice a month. The next meeting will be on July 25th.

UNKNOWN FOUND DEAD IN VACANT LOT

About 40 years of age, dressed in a brown suit with black hair and nothing of value in his possession, a man was found dead last Tuesday morning by Constable Russell in a vacant lot on Sixth street near the S. P. embankment.

He had evidently died during the night, a vicitim of tuberculosis, brought on by exposure.

There were no papers on the remains and no marks that might lead to identification except that the upper front teeth had been extracted.

He was unknown in this locality, and at an inquest held by Deputy Coroner Oliver a verdict was rendered in accordance with the above.

The remains were taken to Woodland for burial.

DISTRICT 785 WINS.

Woodland, July 10.—In the case of Reclamation District No. 785 vs. Lovdal Brothers, and others, an action to force the payment of certain assessments, the defendants moved non-suit on the ground that the assessments had not been made in the manner specified in the contract. They accordingly moved non-suit. The court to-day denied the motion, and defendants were cited to answer.

ONE OF TWINS DEAD.

Last Tuesday morning twin babies were born to a Spanish family who are camped on the property owned by the Washington Land Co. south of Margaret street.

The first born was a healthy child, but the second child was dead at birth.

Deputy Coroner Wilson was called and an inquest was held, the verdict being in consonance with the above facts.

"SHORTY" KIMMELL IS IN OMAHA

About June 15th, "Shorty" Kimmell, a well-known character around Washington and widely known in Sacramento, responded to the invitation of several relatives in Omaha and went to visit with them. A host of grandchildren and relatives awaited him but in a communication to a friend in Sacramento the other day, he advised that California and Washington are like loadstones drawing him back all the time.

"Shorty" was game keeper for the gun clubs in West Sacramento before the tract was reclaimed. He and his dog were faithful friends and always shared the same bed. Since the death of his wife several years ago, his gun has been his com-

SERIOUSLY INJURED IN FALL FROM TRESTLE.

Jack Lyman, an employe of the Kirk-Geary Drug Company, was seriously injured last Sunday when his bicycle ran off the Southern Pacific trestle near Milton station.

The cyclist was returning from a fishing trip. He was riding along a trestle. He rode too close to the rail of the track and was thrown from his bicycle.

He was treated at the Emergency Hospital in Sacramento and removed to the Sisters' Hospital.

It Pays to Study Salesmanship

Washington feels justly proud of her sons and daughters. Donald McKeown is advancing; he is now salesman with Kimball-Upson Co. of Sacramento, and doing nicely. He is a boooster for Heald's Business College, where he received a thorough training in business principles and in salesmanship.

Donald believes in every young man doing the best he can. He has scores of friends who wish him success in his present employment.

BIGLER A VICTIM OF OVER WORK

SINCERITY IN OCCUPATION RESULTED IN OVERSTRAIN AND PNEUMONIA.

Caesar Bigler, agricultural engineer, who was a member of the firm of Bigler, Paul and Furlong of Sacramento, died last Sunday, July 9th, from an attack of pneumonia. He was 32 years old and is survived by a widow and two children, Robert and William.

It is believed his illness was brought on by the recent strain under which he went in making an investigation of conditions in Calaveras County due to the fumes from copper smelters and his appearance in the Federal Court as a witness in the case brought by the farmers against the smelter people.

He was graduated from the University of Berne, Switzerland, and also the University of California.

The body was sent to Oakland for cremation.

Bigler was a very sincere man of estimable qualities. He was recognized one of the best soil experts in California, and was making rapid progress in establishing a remunerative business.

During the past three years he resided at the soil laboratory in West Sacramento, near the foot of Lake Washington.

He was a member of the Farm Bureau and also a director thereof.

He endeared himself to every neighbor in his locality by his affable manners and his desire to help.

Man arrested for suspicion of rape, robbery

A 36-year old Vacaville man was arrested Sunday on suspicion of sexually assaulting a woman at a West Capitol Ave. motel, but the victim in the case has refused to cooperate with police.

Police records indicate that officers responded to the motel after receiving information about a robbery by a known suspect, and that the woman was uncooperative with their investigation. Despite this, they believe they learned that the man – whom she admitted she drove to the motel – had raped and sexually assaulted her, and attempted to steal a car.

He also forced her to ingest methamphetamines and stole $300, police say.

Suspect Emanuel Richard Stewart was spotted at a West Capitol Ave. restaurant later that day and arrested.

Police log

June 24, 11:51 p.m.
An officer responded to an accident on Riverpoint Cir., in which a vehicle drove into a parked vehicle, injuring a person in a trailer. The 45-year old woman driving the first car appeared to be under the influence, and her husband said that she had been abusing a prescription medication. The woman was released to the custody of her husband.

June 26, 5:15 p.m.
An officer recovered a stolen car, missing from Sacramento, which was located on Riske Ln.

June 26, 11:58 p.m.
Three officers picked up a 20-year old man at a Merkley Ave. residence. The man was wanted for corporal injury to a spouse and for child endangerment. He also had 13 warrants out of Sacramento for his arrest.

June 28, 10:51 a.m.
Officers responded to the report of a suicidal man on the I St. Bridge. Several West Sacramento and Sacramento officers subdued him after a struggle, and he was transported to a hospital where he admitted having used LSD.

June 28, 11:45 a.m.
Missing chicken-on-Rice: An officer took a report regarding the theft of three roosters. The poultry had been pilfered from a Rice Ave. home, and neighbors report seeing several juveniles take the birds and flee towards the Holly St. apartments.

June 28, 1 p.m.
An officer took a report regarding a boat which had been stolen from the Broderick boat ramp while the boat owner was fishing.

June 28, 4:45 p.m.
A G St. woman said her boyfriend had been "slapping her around" for the past few days, and today kicked in her front door and fled. He was not located by police.

June 28, 3:45 p.m.
An officer took a report regarding a car stolen during the past several hours from a 3rd and G St. location.

June 28, 11:10 p.m.
An undercover officer contacted a prostitute, who agreed to a sex act for $17. She was booked.

June 28, 10:06 p.m.
On May St., an elderly woman approached a 6' 5", 235 man sitting in a truck in a driveway across the street from her home, and yelled at him to turn down his stereo. When the man didn't hear, police reports say, she slapped him. The man got out of the truck and she slapped him again. The man then slapped her back. He didn't want to press charges, and neither suffered any visible injury.

Funding offered for programs aiding family functioning, parenting

Yolo County is seeking applications for funding under the Family Preservation and Support Program, which will fund programs that enhance family functioning and parenting or offer child abuse neglect prevention or intervention services.

Copies of the Request for Proposals are available at the Yolo Co. Department of Employment and Social Services 1t 120 West Main St., Woodland. Applicants may also call Amy Hurt, (530) 666-8449, to obtain an RFP.

Proposals must be received at the department by Friday, July 23.

A bidders' conference is scheduled for Wed., July 7, at 1:30 p.m. at the department's conference room.

Ahead in local government

The West Sacramento Planning Commission will meet Thursday, July 1, at 6 p.m. at the City Council Chambers, 2101 Stone Blvd. The agenda will include:

Consideration of a variance from commercial coach standards to allow a long-term temporary use of a commercial structure at 3741 Commerce Dr. Owner/applicant: Michael & Julie Ramos.

Consideration of an application seeking approval of a tentative parcel map creating three parcels from two existing lots at the 9.7 acre Club Pheasant Restaurant property which also currently supports crop production. Corner of Jefferson Blvd. & Lake Washington Blvd.; applicant/owner is Peter Palamidessi, West Sacramento.

A workshop on the city general plan's update will also be on the agenda.

The July 7 meeting of the West Sacramento City Council has been canceled. The council's next meeting will be on the evening of July 14 at 2101 Stone Blvd.

really appreciate the decorations, so we'll try to keep on doing them as long as possible."

"Homer and Dorothy are such great neighbors to have," said Grace Ohlson, who, along with her husband, John, have lived across the street from them for decades. "In the old days, Homer used to barbecue for all of us on the 4th of July and he and Dorothy continue to enrich the neighborhood by always having such wonderful plants and decorations on display in their front yard for everyone to see and enjoy. They work so hard year around to brighten up everyone's day and it's very much appreciated."

"Not only does Homer have a green thumb," said Guyburt Pierce, who has lived next door to Homer and Dorothy for 20 years, "but he is also a great historian, too. There's hardly anything he doesn't know about West Sacramento and he's great fun to listen to when he starts talking about the early days of this community. But it really is remarkable what he can do with plants and flowers, though. It can be the dead of winter and there will still somehow be beautiful flowers growing out in front of Homer's house. The place is a perpetual bouquet, and everyone I know loves it!"

Dorothy has had breast cancer and Homer has lost a kidney, had a knee replaced, and is currently recovering from an episode of internal bleeding caused by years of taking medicine for his heart condition, but they are both in good spirits and have many fond memories of the their days working at their flower and gift shop.

"We had so many wonderful customers," said Dorothy, "and Homer was really good at talking to them and doing everything he could to help them. He's always had a good sense of humor and he gets along with just about everyone, especially children. I guess the fact that I'm very organized and never throw away anything made us a pretty good team, and although the florist and gift shop was hard work now and then, it sure was a lot of fun, too."

"I can remember all the way back to when Dorothy and I were down to our last three dollars," recalled Homer, "so we pretty much started out with nothing, and we're both pretty proud of how things turned out. West Sacramento has been awfully good to us and we've truly enjoyed our life here."

CASE NUMBER PB 99-114

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of Frederick L. Rastede, aka Frederick Leonard Rastede, Frederick Rastede and Leonard Rastede:

A PETITION has been filed by Julius E. Polenske in the Superior Court of California, County of Yolo.

THE PETITION requests that Julius E. Polenske be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on July 20, 1999 at 8:30 a.m. in Dept. 2 located at 725 Court Street, Woodland, CA 95695.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within four months from the date of first issuance of letters as provided in section 9100 of the California Probate Code. The time for filing claims will not expire before four months from the hearing date noticed above.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a formal Request for Special Notice of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in section 1250 of the California Probate Code. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

WITHOUT EMPLOYER SUPPORT OF THE NATIONAL GUARD AND RESERVE, IT MIGHT NOT MOVE AN INCH.

As the American military gets smaller, the role of the National Guard and Reserve has never been greater—and the support of their employers never more critical.

The Guard and Reserve make up half of today's military forces. Along with being trained and ready for combat, they support peacekeeping missions, rescue operations and humanitarian relief efforts. As soldiers, sailors, airmen and Marines, they'll be in a position to serve our country. As their employer, so will you.

For more information on how you as an employer can help, contact your state committee at our web site: www.esgr.org

Bridgefest '99

The West Sacramento Chamber of Commerce is producing Bridgefest, which includes Independence Day-style fireworks held on Friday, July 2 at the Daniel C. Palamidessi Bridge. There will also be live music and eclectic food and refreshments beginning at 6 p.m. at the city hall parking lot, 2101 Stone Blvd. For more information, call the Chamber at 371-7042.

Children's recreation

Caring Connection Children's Center and the West Sacramento Elks Lodge will offer a summer recreation program for children ages 5-12 from Monday through Friday, 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. beginning June 14. Six two week sessions will be offered and will include breakfast, lunch and snacks. For information, call Julie Jenkins Sathe at 371-3301. Tuition is $150 per two-week session.

Bookmobile

Yolo County's travelling "bookmobile" will run from through Aug. 27, visiting West Sacramento on Tuesdays according to the following schedule: Rivergate Apartments on Simon Terrace 9:30-10:30 a.m.; Elkhorn Village Park near Cummins Way 10:45 a.m.-11:15 a.m.; Holly Courts Apts. On Maple 11:30 a.m. to noon; Devon & Manchester 1:15 p.m. to 2 p.m.; and Linden Park near Summerfield from 2:15 to 3 p.m. The bookmobile will bring books and magazines in English and Spanish. To check out materials, a library card will be necessary – but applications for library cards will be on hand.

Sac City College

Curriculum materials for both the summer and fall sessions of Sacramento City College are available at West Sacramento's Arthur F. Turner Library on Merkley Ave. The college has just opened a West Sacramento instruction facility.

Bingo

The West Sacramento Elks will host bingo Friday, July 9, beginning at 7 p.m. The bingo will follow snack bar at 6 p.m. Bring this newspaper notice for a free early bird game! For information, call 372-2980 or 372-7470 ext. 6124.

Lunch & recreation

The West Sacramento Parks and Community Services Dept. is sponsoring K.I.D.S. (Kids Involved During Summer), a drop-in recreation program for kids 5-12. There will be arts, music, drama, sports, water fun and more, as well as special events and a free lunch. Program sites will be at various West Sacramento locations, Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., June 28 to Aug. 6. Call 373-5860 for details.

VFW picnic

VFW Post 8762 is hosting a picnic on Independence Day, July 4, from 1 to 10 p.m. with food served at 4 p.m. Menu will include barbequed hamburgers and chicken with all the side dishes. Entertainment starts at 1. Tickets are for a $6 donation. Call 371-7245 for information.

Bus to Six Flags

YoloBus has won approval to extend bus service to Six Flags Amusement Park in Vallejo this summer from June 1 to Aug. 31. Also, beginning June 1 kids age 5 to 17 can ride at reduced rates. Other YoloBus summer destinations include the Vacaville skating center (ice and inline skating), the 16-screen Brendan Theater complex, Vacaville's outlet malls and the Solano malls. Call YoloBus at (530) 661-0816 for information.

Wildlife volunteers

The Wildlife Care Association of Sacramento (WCA) is seeking volunteers to care for injured and orphaned wildlife. Duties include feeding and cleaning out pens. Over 100 native species are rehabilitated and released back into the wild by WCA; over 2,000 animals have been brought to WCA by members of the public in the first two months of this season. For information, call Nancy O'Connor, (916) 444-8822.

Rummage sale

Community Lutheran Church will hold its annual Community Rummage Sale and Flea Market on Sat., Aug. 7. The event will also include a safety faire, with representatives of the West Sacramento police and fire departments, a barbecue, face painting and other entertainment. Flea market spaces are $10. Call the church at 371-8804 to reserve a space.

Amphibious race

The River Otter Amphibious Race ("ROAR," a "kinetic sculpture race") will take place on the Sacramento and West Sacramento riverfront areas on Sept. 25. Entrants are invited to design and build "kinetic sculptures" to race across four miles of pavement, sand, mud and water, beginning in Old Sacramento and ending near the Money Store pyramid. Entries are $50. Prizes will be awarded for artistic merit and creativity, mechanical know-how, and first- and last-place finishes. The race will be held on the same day as the Riverbank Music Festival, featuring blues music on West Sacramento's riverfront. For information on the race, call (916) 552-6808 ext. 105.

Aircraft carrier

West Sacramento's VFW Post 8762 is planning a bus trip July 24 to visit the U.S.S. Hornet, a prominent W.W. II era aircraft carrier, which is now permanently docked in Alameda. For details, contact Hugh King, 371-7245.

County events

Some of the July events around Yolo County include BridgeFest at West Sacramento's city hall area on the evening of July 2; an all day July 4 celebration at Davis's Community Park (call 757-5626); the Davis Criterium Bike Race July 4 (call 750-2081); Fireworks July 4 at Dr. Seller's Football Field in Winters (530-795-2329; and a fun run and all day celebration July 4 in Woodland (530-661-5880).

Raley's agrees to purchase, expands into Southwest

The West Sacramento-based Raley's supermarket chain, already one of the country's largest privately held companies, announced an agreement to purchase 19 stores from Albertson's, Inc., in Las Vegas, and eight more in New Mexico. Albertson's, Inc., is selling the Albertson's stores and Lucky stores to receive government approval for its own acquisition of American Stores.

Raley's states that the acquisition is expected to be complete in September, and that the stores' existing employees will be allowed to keep their jobs.

Raley's, now a Fortune 500 company, was founded in 1935 by Thomas P. Raley in Placerville, and is currently run by C.E.O. and President Michael J. Teel, a grandson of the late founder.

"It is our philosophy that continued growth and expansion will lead the way for more opportunity," Teel was quoted in a press release, "for our employees and our company. We're excited about bringing the Raley's commitment to service to new customers in these communities."

Raley's is the 38th largest supermarket chain in the country, and a survey by the publishers of Consumer Reports last year listed it at the top of supermarkets for service, products and overall shopping.

The acquisition will bring the number of Raley's-owned markets to 151, including 100 Raley's Superstores; 17 Bel Air Markets; 26 Nob Hill Food Stores and seven Food Source warehouse-style stores.
